

UNIT 16: TELLING MY STORY - GUIA ULTRA DETALLADA

Objetivo de la Unidad

Share personal experiences in oral or written form by integrating grammar structures across past and present tenses. Esta unidad busca que el estudiante pueda narrar experiencias personales, describir eventos importantes de su vida, formular preguntas sobre el pasado, responderlas correctamente y conectar ideas utilizando conectores básicos.

1. Simple Past (Pasado Simple)

El pasado simple se utiliza para hablar de acciones terminadas en un momento específico del pasado. Estructura afirmativa: Subject + Verb (Past) + Complement. Ejemplos: I played soccer yesterday. She visited Cuenca last week. We studied English last night. También se emplea para narrar historias, experiencias y acontecimientos importantes.

2. Verbos Regulares e Irregulares

Los verbos regulares agregan -ed (play → played, work → worked). Los verbos irregulares cambian completamente (go → went, eat → ate, see → saw). Es fundamental memorizar los verbos irregulares más comunes porque aparecen constantemente en conversaciones y exámenes.

3. Preguntas en Pasado con DID

La palabra DID es el auxiliar que permite formular preguntas en pasado. Estructura: Did + Subject + Base Verb + Complement? Ejemplo: Did you study yesterday? Did she visit Quito? Importante: después de DID el verbo vuelve a su forma base.

4. WH Questions

What, Where, When, Who, Why y How permiten solicitar información específica. What did you do yesterday? Where did you go? When did you start school? Why did you learn English? How did you solve the problem?

5. Conectores

AND conecta ideas similares. BUT muestra contraste. BECAUSE explica una razón. SO indica una consecuencia. Dominar estos conectores es esencial para escribir párrafos coherentes y naturales.

6. Presente y Pasado Combinados

La unidad exige integrar presente y pasado. Pasado: I was born in Quito. I started school when I was six. Presente: I study Computer Science. I enjoy technology. Combinación: I started learning computers when I was young, and now I study Computer Science.

7. Cómo Escribir una Historia Personal

Paso 1: Presentación personal. Paso 2: Infancia. Paso 3: Educación. Paso 4: Experiencias importantes. Paso 5: Situación actual. Paso 6: Metas futuras. Esta estructura es muy utilizada en evaluaciones orales y escritas.

Childhood, teenager, education, experience, challenge, achievement, dream, goal, future, journey, graduate, improve, develop, family, friendship, responsibility, opportunity, success, failure.
